

MEDIA ADVISORY

Holy Family students check out their new school

Workers in hard hats will be replaced by students with schoolbooks this week in the hallways of Holy Family Catholic School.

Classes at the school will begin Monday, March 9. Before they head into their new classrooms, students will have an opportunity to visit their new school.

Grade 8 students will tour younger children through the facility this week, showing them where their classrooms are, along with other important spots like the gym, library and washrooms.

Media are invited to attend one of the tours. Details are as follows:

9:00 – Holy Family school tour
Thursday, March 5, 2015
Holy Family Catholic School
