

NEWS RELEASE

For immediate release – February 28, 2021

Classes to resume Monday at Bishop Klein School

Classes at Bishop Klein School, 1121 Northumberland Avenue, will resume as regularly schedule on Monday, March 1, 2021.

The school will be under a drinking water advisory. Drinking water will be available, and students are encouraged to bring their own water bottle full of drinking water.

Buses will run also run as scheduled.

In-school classes were cancelled the week of February 22 - 26 because of several watermain breaks in the area. All classes switched to online learning for the week.

Thank you to City of Saskatoon crews for all the work to restore water.
